4. You will receive an email from community@compliancesystems.com to activate your account. Check your Junk folder if you haven't received it in your regular inbox folder.
5. Click the link in the email to activate your account. You will then notice a red bar that reads, “Membership requires approval from moderator” on the site. Moderators check the site on business days Monday through Friday and during business hours, Eastern time, for new users and posts. There may be a 24-hour delay for moderator approval of your registration.
6. Once you receive another email from community@compliancesystems.com that says that your account has been successfully activated, you can now log in with your username and password and participate in the community.

We recommend that you click on the green Subscribe button for those forums of the most interest to you. That way you'll receive email notification when new topics are added to the forum.
